

Mrs. Wilson Makes Appetizing Meals

The Fricassee for Sunday Dinner Is Tempting

By MRS. M. A. WILSON

THE winter period is now upon us and the days commence to be quite short. Then, too, the weather may be expected to be quite cold and stormy. Market prices of the green, succulent foods are advancing, and to the housewife who finds that she must live within a budget this advance in price means a serious problem. Quite frequently she is inclined to drop these foods from her menus.

Recently in a city quite a distance from the busy marts of life, I decided to do some early marketing, and I found that lettuce was fifteen and twenty cents per head. After shopping around I found a dealer who had the hearts of lettuce, two heads for fifteen cents.

This week the market basket will feature three meals from a five-pound steaming chicken.

The market basket will require

- Beef, one-fourth pound of smoked beef.
- One five-pound steaming chicken.
- One and one-half pounds of steaming veal.
- Bananas.
- Oranges.
- Apples.
- Cranberries.
- Celery.
- Young garden onions.
- Turnips.
- Cabbage.
- Rice.
- Canned tomatoes.
- Macaroni.
- Potatoes.
- Lettuce.
- Canned peas.
- Coffee.
- And usual weekly sundries.

Chicken Fricassee

Singe and draw chicken and cut for stewing and leave the breast whole. Add the steaming veal in one piece and place in a deep saucepan. Cover with boiling water and add:

- One carrot, cut in dice.
- Two onions, sliced.
- Faggot of soup herbs.

Cover and cook slowly until the chicken is tender and then lift the wings and legs and thighs to a separate pan. Place in a bowl:

- One-half cup of flour.
- One cup of cold water.
- Two level teaspoons of salt.
- One-half teaspoon of pepper.
- One-half teaspoon of poultry seasoning.

Stir with a fork until free from lumps and then add three cups of chicken stock and pour over the chicken in the saucepan. Bring to a boil and stir. Cook slowly for ten minutes. Lift the balance of the chicken to a bowl and strain the stock left in the saucepan, in which the whole chicken was cooked; add the vegetables to the legs, wings and thighs. Lift to a hot dish and garnish with pointed toast. Sprinkle with finely minced parsley.

Potato Dumplings

Rub four cold boiled potatoes through a sieve into a bowl and add:

- Two cups of flour.
- One-half cup of bread crumbs.
- Two level teaspoons of baking powder.
- One level teaspoon of salt.
- One-half level teaspoon of pepper.
- One-fourth level teaspoon of thyme.
- One egg.

Work to form a smooth mixture and then form into balls the size of a small egg. Place two quarts of water in a large saucepan and add:

- Two onions, sliced thin.
- One teaspoon of salt.

When boiling drop in the dumplings and cover closely and do not open for fifteen minutes.

Chicken Patties

Butter custard cups liberally and line with washed and nicely seasoned rice about half an inch thick. Fill the center with creamed chicken, made as follows: Place in a saucepan two cups of thick cream sauce made with equal parts of chicken stock and milk.

- Two green peppers, minced fine.
- One cup of celery, chopped fine.
- Five hard-boiled eggs, chopped fine.

Remove from heat of chicken cut in inch pieces. Sprinkle over the top a little grated cheese and a tablespoon of bread crumbs. Bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes.

- Dresses in 25 Different Styles at $10—A Third Less
- Dresses in 32 Different Styles at $15—Third to a Half Less

Undoubtedly the most astonishing dress values that we have had this season—and that is saying a great deal, for Wanamaker's Down Stairs Dress Store is famous for incomparable dress values. Market conditions in the garment world are decidedly upset, and tomorrow our customers can profit by this. Never have we had such variety of fresh and beautiful frocks. Never have prices been so low.

Fur-Trimmed Coats, $20

Of silvertip velour and plain velour in navy blue and brown, topped with a fur collar and lined from neck to hem. Almost Every Kind of Coat at $25. Loose-back coats of cut bolivia, soft and warm. Coats with tasseled straps or pleated backs, smartly belted. Braided velour coats in navy and brown. And many, many coats with fur collars. Every coat in this collection is of fine Winter-weight material, lined throughout with figured silk.

At $29, $37.50 and $39. Silvertip bolivia, plain bolivia, uncut bolivia and kindred weaves make up these coats in navy, reindeer and brown. Some have collars and cuffs of beaverette. Some are trimmed with tabs of fur. One model at $39, which is sketched, has long Tuxedo revers of beaverette fur reaching to the hem. Conservative models in navy, black or brown broadcloth have collars of skunk opossum. $39.

At $42.50, $47.50 and $58.50. A beautiful plain bolivia coat, without fur, is $42.50. Navy blue bolivia coats with big fluffy collars and cuffs of taupe wolf are most unusual at $47.50. (Sketched.) At $58.50 there is wide choosing among handsome Winter coats with collars of taupe wolf, beaver, nutria, mole and Australian opossum.

At $65 and $69. Materials in this group are of a luxurious softness. Coats and wrap-coats are trimmed with beautiful furs and finely lined. Other very lovely coats at $75, $85, $95 and upward.

Sports Coats $15, $16.50 to $25

Mostly in the becoming tan shade that all young women like. These coats are lined with silk or are of double-faced materials that require lining only through the shoulders. They are in great variety and all sizes.

Afternoon Frocks, Dinner Gowns, Evening Dresses and Tailored Cloth Frocks

Many Samples, $16.75, $18.75, $25. $16.75 for exquisite black radium lace dresses combined with charmeuse and Canton crepe. Many with the new rather high neck and lace sleeves. $18.75 for a big collection of cloth dresses of Poiret twill, serge and tricotine. They are braided and embroidered and have interesting sashes. $25 for dancing frocks of soiree taffeta, dinner gowns and evening dresses of Georgette, radium lace or chiffon. In Nile, orchid, flame, American Beauty, brown, black, turquoise and maize.

Serge Frocks, $5

Serge frocks are in navy blue, trimmed with very deep bands or medallions done in wool or silk embroidery in gray, black, green or blue.

Jersey and Serge Dresses, $6

Jersey dresses are in one-piece style with pleated skirts and surplice bodices. In black, navy and reindeer. Serge dresses are in navy and brown, beautifully cut, with wide sleeves of self-material or Georgette, trimmed with many rows of red, King's blue or tan stitching.

Another serge frock, with a pleated skirt, has an elaborately embroidered bodice.

What a Choice at $10!

Fawn-color imported broadcloth with a self-plaid and gold embroidery. Brown velour frocks with scalloped overskirts over satin. Poiret twill embroidered in braid or with beads. Navy serge with gray silk braid in rows. Navy serge with wide embroidered band of satin across the shoulders.

Every dress in this collection is of most unusual value. —And at $15!

Dresses of navy blue tricotine, Poiret twill and Canton crepe made in more than a dozen delectable ways. Extra-size dresses, 40½ to 52½, in four styles—of serge, satin or crepe de chine in blue and black. The materials in these dresses are unusually fine, and in a number of instances $15 would hardly cover the cost of the fabric alone. All sizes from 14 to 52½ in the group. (Market)
